

CONCERT IN THE PARK
June 4, 2017 – 5:30 PM
Moon Park Amphitheater
HIGH SCHOOL SYMPHONIC BAND

Parking – Students may park behind the Amphitheater in the appropriate locations. This lot is small, students may need to park in the upper lot, and walk down. DO NOT PARK ON THE GRASS OR IN HANDICAP LOCATIONS! Police enforcement will be present!

Attire: Summer casual. Shorts and polo shirt/blouse. Dress pants, etc. Sundresses, and/or appropriate women clothing. No jeans or jean shorts, tennis shoes. Flip-flops, sandals are acceptable for this concert. Men – shirts must be tucked into shorts or pants. Sunglasses, (if sunny) are also permitted).

Water will not be provided. It is recommended that students bring their own water if necessary.

Cancellation of Event: If weather becomes inclement, please check the following locations for messages regarding the cancellation of this event:

- www.moonband.org
- www.twitter.com/moonband
- Mr. Barthen's Ed-line class pages

In case of inclement weather, a message will be posted by 3:00 PM on Sunday, June 4, 2017. This event will either go on as scheduled, or cancelled completely. No rain date or make-up concert will be scheduled.

Symphonic Band

- Report time – 5:15 PM
- Performance Repertoire
 - March of the Belgium Paratroopers
 - Summer Dances
 - Galop
 - Summer of 69
 - King Cotton March

Concert Order

- Honors Strings
- H.S. Choir
- Symphonic Band

Students are reminded to take their instruments home with them on Friday, June 2, 2017 .

Mr. Barthen will not be stopping at the High School before the performance.